Subject: Request to Grant Visitor Visa for New Zealand

Dear High Commissioner,

I, {Name}, am writing to request a visitor visa for New Zealand. I am an Indian citizen and a resident of Delhi, India. I want to visit New Zealand in {Month, Year} to attend my cousin's wedding. My cousin {Name} has lived in Auckland, New Zealand, for {Period}. He is working as a Business Analyst in a reputed IT firm. He is getting married in {Month, Year} and has invited me to his wedding. Growing up, we had a close bond, and I would appreciate being part of this special day in his life. He has sent me an invitation letter and the wedding card, both of which are attached for your reference. I hope you will consider my request and grant me the visa so I can attend this important event in his life.

PURPOSE OF VISIT

I intend to visit New Zealand for 11 days and plan to spend most of the time with my cousin and his family. During this time, I will also explore the city of Auckland and its surrounding areas. This is my first visit to New Zealand, and I am excited to visit the country. During these 11 days, I will stay at hotel {Hotel Name}, where the marriage will occur on {Date} evening. My cousin booked hotel rooms for all the guests in advance.

TRAVEL ITINERARY

Here is my travel itinerary, which will help you understand my plan better.

- Day 1 - 2, 10th & 11th September - I will travel from Delhi to Auckland on the 10th of September and arrive in Auckland, New Zealand, on the 11th of September morning. From Auckland airport, my cousin will pick me up, and we will go straight to the hotel, where I will rest for the day.
- Day 3 - 4, 13th & 14th September - I plan to visit the shopping malls and do some wedding shopping.
- Day 5 - 15th September - I will attend the wedding ceremony at the hotel.
- Day 6 - 16th September - I will attend the wedding reception.
- Day 7 - 8, 17th & 18th September - I plan to enjoy Auckland's famous black and gold sand beaches and two sparkling harbors.
- Day 9 - 19th September - I will visit the Auckland Sky Tower, one of the Southern Hemisphere's tallest buildings, and take a 360-degree view of the city.
- Day 10 - 20th September - I plan to spend this day with my cousin, his new bride, and his family, visiting some local attractions.
- Day 11 - 21st September - I will take the return flight from Auckland to Delhi.

WHY WILL I NOT OVERSTAY THE NEW ZEALAND VISITOR VISA?

- Professional ties - I am working as an IT professional in Delhi, and I have a stable job that I am currently employed to. This is the only visit I plan to make to New Zealand, and I will be returning to India after the wedding function.
- Familial ties - I have a cousin in Auckland, and my visit is to attend his wedding. I am living in Delhi, India, along with my parents, and I love my parents and would never want to leave them.

- Financial ties – I have a house in Delhi, India, and a stable income sufficient to sustain my living. I will not overstay the New Zealand Visitor Visa as I plan to return to India after the wedding.

ASSURANCE OF MAINTAINING MYSELF ADEQUATELY IN THE NEW ZEALAND

I am a law-abiding citizen, and I assure you I will remain adequately in New Zealand. I will not take up any job or business activity in New Zealand. I will not stay in New Zealand for more than the period allowed by the Visitor's Visa, and I will leave within the stipulated timeframe.

I also understand that I should stay within the New Zealand Visitor Visa as it can lead to severe consequences.

MY SPONSOR

I currently have a stable job and am financially independent. I will be able to cover all my expenses during the trip. I have enough savings in my bank account to cover my travel costs.

I understand that overstaying my visa can result in legal action being taken against me, and I am committed to leaving New Zealand.
