

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE (SOP) Dependant Visa SOP Sample For Canada

To,
The High Commission of Canada,
India

Subject: Application for Study Permit for {Name}, 6-year-old

Respected Sir/Madam,

I want to begin by expressing my gratitude to the Canadian High Commission for providing me the opportunity to apply for my 6-year-old son's study permit. I, at this moment, highlight that my visa, my daughter's (2-year-old) visa has been sanctioned and my wife, {Name}, is already in Toronto, Canada studying Master of Professional Studies in Analytics in {University Name}. Given such a situation, it shall be imperative for my son to move with us too, who is currently the only family member awaiting visa approval. This application will highlight crucial reasons for applying for study permit.

Purpose of Visit

Considering both are yet very young, they too need their mother for a fruitful childhood. {Name} really misses his mother and at such a crucial stage when he is in emotional development stage, it won't be a wise decision to keep him away from his mother for longer. I must admit that my wife needs her kids by her side so that she is not worried about their upbringing and the loss of motherly love that they have to bear. Considering all these factors, I, as a responsible father have taken this step of commuting for a specified period to Canada and my kids are to accompany and return with us after completing my wife's course successfully.

Education Background

My son, {Name} {Registration Number}, 6-year-old, is presently pursuing his education at the 2nd grade in {School Name}. He has been a very dynamic student securing straight A1 in his 1st standard and currently in all the subjects in his 2nd standard too, {Name} is a bright learner. Besides his academic accolades, he has also participated in various competitions, such as Clay Modeling, Art and Craft, Spell Bee, Elocution, and even Singing. We are confident that my son will continue his excellent academic performance in Canadian schools as well until my wife's course completion. With his mother to guide him and the experienced faculty present in schools, {Name} would learn and develop even better in that atmosphere.

Reasons to Return to India

Our sole purpose of visiting Canada is to re-unite and live together as a family through my wife's course duration. All our decisions have been formulated by a sole aspiration to return and establish a better career in India.

- 1. Career Prospects for Wife and Me: After completing her course at Northeastern University, my wife will move back to India. She envisions her career in India as this degree will make it easier for her to look for employment. But, ahead of that, there must be far more companies in India that would value a Canadian degree in Analytics, helping her secure a good position and remuneration in India.
Traveling on a dependent VISA, my best interest, both socially and professionally, is vested in India, and thus leaving with my wife is also the case for me. In such a scenario, I am presently employed as a {Profile} at Infosys BPM, as a {Profile}. Thus, in accord with the same, I could apply for better positions at various other companies on my return.
- 2. Community and Cultural Ties: My wife has been intensely connected to the Indian culture. She wishes that her kids should be a part of that rich heritage and cultural diversity, She also would want them to continue their schooling in India.
- 3. Family Ties: Both my children have loving grandparents back in India. It is among their few wishes to spend their elderly age with their grandkids. Even, I as a parent would want them to have a nourished childhood with their grandparents. Thus, this becomes a primary reason to come back to India. Furthermore, both {Name} and his sister enjoy their grandparents' company, especially the everyday bedtime story routine.

Financial Summary

Through more than {Duration} years of my professional working experience in top tire Multinational Corporations, I have accrued enough revenue to sponsor a healthy living in Canada.
