Subject: Request for Canada Study Visa approval

Dear High Commissioner,

Currently, I find myself in a state of immense ecstasy for being granted admission to Seneca College of applied arts and technology Newnham campus. So I find great pride in expressing gratitude towards the institute for giving me a panorama to enhance my skills over Global Hospitality Services Leadership program.

Academic Background

For me, education holds excellent magnitude, and hence I have always prioritized it in my first place. Considering the growth of hospitality industry and ceiling chances of career development, soon after accomplishing my two trademarks of matriculation and senior secondary with fruitful results, I headed towards a Bachelor of Science degree in Hospitality & Hotel Administration with a specialization in financial management, strategic planning and front-office management. I had recently completed this graduation in {Year} from the {College} and Applied Nutrition in Goa with an average of {Percentage}. As a result, I gained hotelier qualities, which partially met my desire to improve my skill set to become one of the most exemplary leaders in the hospitality sector.

Besides being a determined student, I never let go of my focused approach towards other fruitful opportunities. During the previous {Period}, I have engaged in various extracurricular events at our institute. I was a member of {Clubs Name} and was involved in social welfare programs. In addition, I was elected as head of the college cultural committee. I had the opportunity to successfully organize and execute several traditional and local dances, plays, and dramas along with my college mates.

Professional Background

I was constantly conscious of the importance of honing my agility to improve my communication, teamwork, and management abilities. As a result, I have never limited my learning to the four walls of the classroom. I have attempted to do things outside of the box during an internship to gain more professional experience. Hence, I banged an opportunity to continue my training at the prestigious {Hotel's Name}. With a strong interest in studies and research, I conducted a study on "Building client outreach through customer outreach via the use of professional networking hospitality industry in India" which would serve as a springboard for my future goal of establishing a travel and tourism company. This led me to believe firmly that corporate sector is also an integral part of hospitality business.

Why Global Hospitality Services Leadership program?

Ever since my younger times, I have always felt curious about surveying the machinery behind the hotel business. As my intellect developed, I understood that the hotel and hospitality industry is challenging, but at the same time, it is diverse and also fascinating. Possessing a polite and humble nature has further stanchd my feet in the hospitality industry. With transitory time, I also comprehended that it has enormous potential for my career and can provide me with various employment opportunities in India. Therefore, with a bachelor of science in hospitality studies and industrial experience in the luxury hotel of India, I am ready to plunge into ever growing hospitality field.

With a Bachelor of Science in hospitality studies and hotel administration, I have retained the soft skills of perseverance, communication, leadership, and presentation; however, I feel there is still a lot of wisdom that I require to carve a niche for myself in the realm of hospitality management leadership. Through this intended program, I will gain a better understanding of core subjects such as Services Marketing, Service Leadership Strategy, Global Business Communications Ethics and CSR, Data Analytics and Finance, and Leading Global Business, as well as become acquainted with new service categories and market segments while assisting with the implementation of organizational change. It will also help me pursue my long-term aim of establishing a travel and tourism company by offering a better attitude for developing and effectively implementing business ideas. The course will help me build a distinguished profile around posh brands and international chains of hotels.

Why Seneca College of Applied Arts And Technology?

The decision to attend this esteemed college is based on the institute's excellent education and a higher degree of contact with students of all nationalities and curriculums designed to assist students in getting more practical knowledge. Seneca College's hospitality services curriculum will provide a varied and multicultural learning environment, assist me in achieving my goals, and be extremely valuable to my future. I will be able to use the many resources, learn from experienced teachers, and collaborate with individuals from other nations and backgrounds. Also, the College offers a co-op opportunity that will allow me to gain practical experience while studying from genuine industry leaders. Choosing to study with Seneca will provide me with a 100% hands-on learning experience and leadership in global hospitality services.

Why Canada and not India?

I've opted to further my studies in another nation since it will help me enhance my personality, communication, and social skills while also allowing me to experience a wholly different lifestyle and quality experience. To broaden my intellectual horizons while learning about other international cultures and etiquettes, international hospitality, and travel experience will help me gain a myriad of job opportunities when I return to India. Therefore, I have chosen Canada as the perfect destination for my future augmentation. Additionally, serving excellent quality of education, Canada set an incredible study pattern for its students worldwide, so hence to keep myself updated with the latest advances, I am keen to obtain a PGD course here.

Future Plans

The need for hotel management specialists is currently strong and is likely to rise further as the country's tourist population grows. Hence, as a real Indian citizen, I have decided to return home and offer my abilities to develop my own country's hotel business. So, one of my short-term objectives is to return to India and work in managerial positions such as marketing manager, banquet manager, or revenue manager at renowned hotel chains such as {Namely}. But, in the long run, I hope to become a hotel entrepreneur and establish a centralized adventure tourism sector in India. The reason for this is because there are still many sections of the Indian subcontinent that have not been explored, and hence with a little help from the locals, it can be converted into a thriving company. Therefore, through my business venture, I wish to reach out these undiscovered places and bring them in rage.

Ties to Home Country

My father is a {Profession} while my mother is {Profession}, but soon left her job to help and educate underprivileged children. She collaborated with various NGO's and for years have been teaching orphans near our locality. Holding great zeal for social services, I, too, want to return and assist my parents in their noble services. In addition, my father also works in agricultural land of his own and hence own properties in {State} along a home in our Village, hence to take care of such possessions and also my family, my return is curtailed. Additionally, I also intend to open a local tourism business in India, for which my complete presence is required, hence my coming back is assured.

Finance for studies

My father is a {Profession}, and throughout his career, he has earned enough revenue to sponsor my education and allow me to gain educational experience in distant country. As a result of his endorsement, I have paid my complete tuition and the GIC costs required for visa clearance.

Language Proficiency

My overall IELTS band score is {Points}, which each module scoring:

Listening: {Points} Reading: {Points} Writing: {Points} Speaking: {Points}

Conclusion

I thank you from the bottom of my heart to have given me this opportunity to express myself. I look forward to studying in Canada. All my dreams and career progression rely on it. I hope you would consider this and grant a study permit so that I can accomplish all my goals.
