As the principal overseer of the business, I am obligated to ensure its smooth functioning, and hence my wife and I cannot remain away for more than 15 days. Given our steadfast commitment to the business and our reputation for ethical and professional practices, we consider it imperative to adhere to the pre-determined return date. Our sole aim in visiting New Zealand is to tend to our daughter, and we have no intention of breaching the visa conditions or overstaying in the country. We express our profound gratitude for the opportunity to visit New Zealand and assure you of our strict compliance with all relevant laws and regulations.
- Proprietorial and financial ties – Our amassed fortune, in conjunction with our real estate holdings, total a substantial sum of INR _____ (equivalent to NZD _____). As vigilant stewards of our possessions, it is crucial for us to remain conscientious and attentive to the management and safeguarding of our properties, which necessitates our continuous presence in India. Our economic security and welfare are inextricably tied to our capability to prudently administer and secure our assets, and as such, we are eagerly looking forward to returning to India after our brief visit to New Zealand.
- Immigration History – As neophyte visitors beyond India's borders, we are deeply committed to upholding the rules and regulations governing our stay in New Zealand. We recognize the importance of complying with the requirements to ensure a trouble-free visit to other countries and to facilitate future reunions with our daughter, who has been granted permanent residency in New Zealand and may serve as a prospective destination for our future journeys.
